The Grand Rapids Magnet is received, Editor Bernard having removed his outfit to that place from La Prairie.

MAJ. WM. MCKINLEY was on Wednesday nominated by the republicans as their candidate for governor of Ohio. Maj. McKinley made a rousing speech and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. His election is a foregone conclusion, as he is exceedingly popular and invariably runs ahead of his ticket, and then Ohio is a republican state, you know.

Sour Grapes.

Lawyer Merrill of Aitkin, has hitherto been a stalwart republican. But the McKinley outrage and the other overt acts of his party have sickened him, and he can no longer be counted in the fold. He was at the Clifton yesterday.

"I will never vote a republican ticket again," he asserted. I am not promising to vote either the democratic or the farmers' alliance, or any other ticket either, for that matter, mind you. It is my opinion at the present that I will remain purely independent, and my course will not be in sympathy with any one party."

Well, we are not surprised that Mr. Merrill has done this. The only wonder is that he did not do it entirely out of this part of the country, considering the way the republican citizens of his own county served him at the last election. He was so unpopular that he was beaten 3 to 1 in his candidacy for county attorney, against a man who had lived in the county only six weeks. He has flopped, but not on account of the "McKinley bill or other overt acts," unless his defeat at the hands of his party was an "overt act." His is a clear case of "sour grapes."

Third Regiment, Trouble Ended.

The difficulty in the Third Regiment, between the regimental officers and the adjutant general, has been amicably adjusted, and the order accepting the resignations of Col. Wright and Adjutant McGill has been rescinded, as has also the order assigning the different companies to duty in other regiments. An order was also issued directing the regiment to go into camp from June 27th to July 6th. The following are the orders adjusting the matter:

Order No. 9: General Order No. 7, under date of June 7, so far as the same pertains to the 3d regiment, is hereby rescinded. By command of the governor.

Adjutant General.

Order No. 7 was the one assigning the companies of the 3d regiment to other regiments. The second order, issued last night, was general order No. 10, which reads:

"General order No. 4, current series, is hereby amended to read as follows: 'The national guard of this state will enter camp for instruction at Lake City, Minn., as hereinafter designated: Second infantry, Col. J. Bobleter commanding, June 18 to 27 inclusive; 3d infantry, Col. Frederick P. Wright commanding, June 27 to July 6 inclusive; 1st infantry, Col. W. B. Bend commanding, July 7 to 16 inclusive.'

"By command of the governor,

Adjutant-General."

This amicable adjustment of the matter and the re-organization of the Third Regiment, is highly satisfactory to the members of Co. K, of this city, of which regiment Co. K is a part, and the boys are very much elated over the outcome of affairs.

From Off Port Royal, S. C., to the Bermudas, and still wandering.

An interesting instance of the strange wanderings of derelicts at sea is furnished by the Atlantic pilot chart. On Nov. 26, 1886, the Port Royal buoy having gone adrift, began its career of adventure off Charleston harbor. Drifting out into the gulf stream it remained in the warm waters of that current during the remainder of that year, gradually moving northward in a zigzag course, probably under the influence of conflicting winds. It was last seen that year in the gulf stream on Dec. 24, 1886. Three months later it was discovered floating serenely along in good condition, off the eastern edge of the gulf stream some 200 miles north of the Bermudas. Then it started for a more southern latitude, and during the month of May voyaged along past the southern side of the Bermudas, passing only a short distance from those islands. For more than a year it was lost sight of, but although it had been in and near the track of the great hurricanes, it turned up in good shape on June 9, 1888, 600 miles north of the Bermudas. Here it seems to have found a part of the ocean to its liking, for it remained in that neighborhood, always drifting, and several times re-crossing its track, but never venturing more than a hundred miles or two in any direction, for two years. It was seen by passing vessels on several occasions during this time. Finally it started off again toward the south, and according to the latest advices on Sept. 15 last it had again gone below the latitude of the Bermudas, but keeping 500 or 600 miles to the eastward of the islands. The wanderer was still in good condition when last seen. The lonely four years' voyage of this lost buoy is particularly interesting for the light it throws upon the old stories of drifting relics having been carried from America to the coasts of the old world before Columbus sailed.

Standard of Education.

According to Ruskin, an educated man ought to know these things: First, where he is—that is to say, what sort of a world he has got into, how large it is, what kind of creatures live in it and how, what it is made of, and what may be made of it. Secondly, where he is going—that is to say, what chances or reports there are of any other world besides this, what seems to be the nature of that other world. Thirdly, what kind of faculties he possesses, what are the present state and wants of mankind, what is his place in society, and what are the readiest means in his power of attaining happiness and diffusing it. The man who knows these things, and who has his will so subdued in the learning of them that he is ready to do what he knows he ought, is educated, and the man who knows them not is uneducated, though he could talk all the tongues of Babel.

Queen Victoria's Love for Babies.

Queen Victoria's love for babies by no means diminishes with her ever-increasing number of grandchildren. Indeed, the latest addition to the royal family always demands her special interest, and at the present moment it is the new baby of the Duke and Duchess of Sparta, her majesty's latest great-grandson, for whom she exhibits the greatest solicitude. A magnificent cradle has just been dispatched by his royal great-grandmother to the infant, over whose outfit the Queen and the Empress Frederick spent many hours during the latter's sojourn here some weeks ago. By the earnest request of the Queen, the Duke and Duchess of Sparta, will take the baby over to England to see the Queen this month, and the princess Sophie, mother-like, is doubtless only too proud of the opportunity to display her treasure to her English relatives.

SCORE OF THE SHOOTERS.

The Gun Club Tournament Was a Success—Many Visitors Present.

The third annual tournament of the Brainerd Gun Club occurred on Wednesday and Thursday, and was a successful affair both in point of attendance and financially. The club has always been fortunate in occasions of this kind from the fact that their grounds and accommodations are the best in the state and northwest, and visiting shooters are certain of being used in the best possible manner. This year the club was favored with some of the best trap-shooters in the state, among whom were H. C. Lawrence and John T. Burkhardt, of St. Paul, A. F. Schuler and Dr. Lyons, of Minneapolis, H. W. Jones, of Atwater, Messrs. Benson, Robbins and Roberts, of Fargo, and many others. These gentlemen shooting under an assumed name as the score below will show. One unfortunate occurrence was the fact that more of our home shooters did not participate, but several of the club members were either on the sick list or absent from the city. The score by shoots was as follows:

The Pintsch System of Lighting Passenger Trains with Gas.

The Pintsch system of lighting by means of compressed gas is pronounced by competent judges to be the best known means of car illumination. It is safe under any and all circumstances. It is not affected by atmospheric changes. Burns more steadily than any other light in use. Although very brilliant it is soft and agreeable. It emits no smoke, is odorless and perfectly clean.

It is so effective and evenly distributed that travelers in any part of the car can read easily and comfortably. It is simple in operation, absolutely reliable and of constant quality.

Although this system has been in use on some of the leading lines in the East and in Europe for some time, the credit of first introducing it in the northwest belongs to "The North-Western Line"—C. St. P. M. & O. Railway.

The vestibuled trains on this line, leaving Minneapolis at 6:50 p. m., St. Paul, 7:30 p. m., daily, for Chicago and Milwaukee, are lighted throughout with this gas.

In addition to the superior arrangement and comfort of the sleeping cars, the vestibuled limited, this brilliant light adds to the appearance of the car, and passengers have expressed themselves as delighted with this method of lighting.

The Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Company is now constructing a plant in Minneapolis for the manufacture of Pintsch gas in order to supply the entire passenger equipment.

No line keeps its equipment more completely up to the latest standard than does "The North-Western Line" and has never failed to provide any improvement likely to add to the comfort, safety or pleasure of through travel.

The Grand Rapids Magnet is received, Editor Bernard having removed his outfit to that place from La Prairie.

Maj. Wm. McKinley was on Wednesday nominated by the republicans as their candidate for governor of Ohio. Maj. McKinley made a rousing speech and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. His election is a foregone conclusion, as he is exceedingly popular and invariably runs ahead of his ticket, and then Ohio is a republican state, you know.

Sour Grapes.

Lawyer Merrill, of Aitkin, has hitherto been a stalwart republican. But the McKinley outrage and the other overt acts of his party have sickened him, and he can no longer be counted in the fold. He was at the Clifton yesterday.

"I will never vote a republican ticket again," he asserted. "I am not promising to vote either the democratic or the farmers' alliance, or any other ticket either, for that matter, mind you. It is my opinion at the present that I will remain purely independent, and my course will not be in sympathy with either party."

Well, we are not surprised that Mr. Merrill has dropped. The only wonder is that he did not drop entirely out of this part of the country, considering the way the republican citizens of his own county served him at the last election. He was so unpopular that he was beaten 3 to 1 in his candidacy for county attorney, against a man who had lived in the county only six weeks. He has dropped, but not on account of the "McKinley bill" or other overt acts," unless his defeat at the hands of his party was an "overt act." His is a clear case of "sour grapes."

Third Regt. Trouble Ended.

The difficulty in the Third Regiment, between the regimental officers and the adjutant general, has been amicably adjusted, and the order accepting the resignations of Col. Wright and Adjutant McGill has been rescinded, as has also the order assigning the different companies to duty at other regiments. An order was also issued directing the regiment to go into camp from June 27th to July 6th. The following are the orders adjusting the matter:

Order No. 9: General order No. 7, under date of June 7, so far as the same pertains to the 3d regiment, is hereby rescinded. By command of the governor. J. H. MULLEN, Adjutant General.

Order No. 7 was the one assigning the companies of the 3d regiment to other regiments. The second order, issued last night, was general order No. 10, which reads:

"General order No. 4, current series, is hereby amended to read as follows: 'The national guard of this state will enter camp for instruction at Lake City, Minn., as hereinafter designated: Second Infantry, Col. J. B. Bolester commanding, June 18 to 27 inclusive; 3d Infantry, Col. Frederick P. Wright commanding, June 27 to July 6 inclusive; 1st Infantry, Col. W. B. Bond commanding, July 7 to 16 inclusive.'

"By command of the governor, J. H. MULLEN, Adjutant General."

This amicable adjustment of the matter and the re-organization of the Third Regiment, is highly satisfactory to the members of Co. K. of this city, and the boys are very much elated over the outcome of affairs.

From Off Post Royal, S. C., to the Bermudas, and Still Wandering.

An interesting instance of the strange wanderings of derelicts at sea is furnished by the Atlantic pilot chart, Nov. 26, 1886, of the Port Royal, by having gone adrift, began its career of adventure off Charleston harbor. Drifting out into the gulf stream it remained in the warm waters of that current during the remainder of that year, gradually moving northward in a zigzag course, probably under the influence of conflicting winds. It was last seen that year in the gulf stream on Dec. 24, 1886. Three months later it was discovered floating serenely along, in good condition, off the eastern edge of the gulf stream some 200 miles north of the Bermudas. Then it started for a more southern voyage along past the southern side of the Bermudas, passing only a short distance from those coral islands. For more than a year it was lost sight of, but although it had been in and near the track of the great hurricanes, it turned up in good shape on June 9, 1888, 600 miles northwest of the Bermudas. Here it seems to have found a part of the ocean to its liking, for it remained in that neighborhood, always drifting, and several times crossing its track, but never venturing more than a hundred miles or two in any direction, for two years. It was seen by passing vessels on several occasions during this time. Finally it started off again toward the south, and according to the latest advices on Sept. 15 last it had again gone below the latitude of the Bermudas, but keeping 500 or 600 miles to the eastward of the islands. The wanderer was still in good condition when last seen. The lonely four years' voyage of this lost buoy is particularly interesting for the light that it throws upon the old stories of drifting relics having been carried from America to the coasts of the old world before Columbus sailed.

Standard of Education.

According to Ruskin, an educated man ought to know these things: First, where he is—that is to say, what sort of a world he has got into, how large it is, what kind of creatures live in it and how, what it is made of, and what may be made of it. Secondly, where he is going—that is to say, what chances or reports there are of any other world besides this, what seems to be the nature of that other world. Thirdly, what kind of faculties he possesses, what are the present state and wants of mankind, what is his place in society, and what are the readiest means in his power of attaining happiness and diffusing it. The man who knows these things, and who has his will so subdued in the learning of them that he is ready to do what he knows he ought, is educated, and the man who knows them not is uneducated, though he could talk all the tongues of Babel.

Queen Victoria's Love for Babies.

Queen Victoria's love for babies by no means diminishes with net ever-increasing number of grandchildren. Indeed, the latest addition to the royal family always demands her special interest, and at the present moment it is the new baby of the Duke and Duchess of Sparta, her majesty's latest great-grandson, for whom she exhibits the greatest solicitude. A magnificent cradle has just been dispatched by his royal great-grandfather to the infant, over whose outfit the Queen and the Empress Frederick spent many hours during the latter's sojourn here some weeks ago. By the earnest request of the Queen, the Duke and Duchess of Sparta will take the baby over to England to see the Queen this month, and the princess Sophie, mother-like, is doubtless only too proud of the opportunity to display her treasure to her English relatives.

SCORE OF THE SHOOTERS.

The Gun Club Tournament Was a Success—Many Visitors Present.

The third annual tournament of the Brainerd Gun Club occurred on Wednesday and Thursday, and was a very successful affair both in point of attendance and financially. The club has always been fortunate in occasions of this kind from the fact that their grounds and accommodations are the best in the state and northwest, and visiting shooters are certain of being used in the best possible manner. This year the club was favored with one of the best trap-shooters in the state, among whom were H. C. Lawrence and John T. Burkhard, of St. Paul, A. P. Schuler and Dr. Lyons, of Minneapolis, H. W. Jones, of Atwater, Messrs. Benson, Robbins and Roberts, of Fargo, and many others, these gentlemen shooting under an assumed name as the score below will show. One unfortunate occurrence was the fact that more of our home shooters did not participate, but several of the club members were on the sick list or absent from the city. The score by shots was as follows:

The Pintch System of Lighting Passenger Trains with Gas.

The Pintch system of lighting by means of compressed gas is pronounced by competent judges to be the best known means of car illumination. It is safe under any and all circumstances. It is not affected by atmospheric changes. Burns more steadily than any other light in use. Although very brilliant it is soft and agreeable. It emits no smoke, is odorless and perfectly clean.

It is so effective and evenly distributed that travelers in any part of the car can read easily and comfortably.

It is simple in operation, absolutely reliable and of constant quality. Although this system has been in use on some of the leading lines in the East and in Europe for some time, the credit of first introducing it in the northwest belongs to "The Northern Western Line"—C. St. P. M. & O. Railway.

The vestibuled trains on this line, leaving Minneapolis at 6:50 p. m., St. Paul, 7:30 p. m., daily, for Chicago and Milwaukee, are lighted throughout with this gas.

In addition to the superior arrangement and comfort of the sleeping cars on the vestibuled limited, this brilliant light adds to the appearance of the car, and passengers have expressed themselves as delighted with this method of lighting.

The Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Company is now constructing a plant in Minneapolis for the manufacture of Pintch Gas in order to supply the entire passenger equipment.

No line keeps its equipment more completely up to the latest standard than the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Company, and it has never failed to provide any improvement likely to add to the comfort, safety or pleasure of through travel.

A MEMBER of the British Parliament was not sent to jail for immoral practice. If his case is to be taken as a precedent and the English papers have told the truth about the characters of the rest of them, Parliament is in danger of soon being taken to a quorum.

ALIENATION of a wife's affections is no longer a ground for damages in the courts of Kentucky. A recent ruling holds that a man whose wife has been enticed away should rejoice at being rid of such an unworthy mate. This is queer law, but it is good common sense.

The new congress of Chili has issued a manifesto setting forth the weakness of the insurgent forces and representing them to be without moral support or authority. Considering the disadvantages under which they labor, the rebels are doing quite well. With half a year, they would have whipped the government out of its boots long ago.

SCHWENKERT has fled from Kansas City. He explained to the inmates of the branch "heaven" he established there that he had been moved to his departure by the spirit. It is more likely that he was "moved" to it by the kick on the shin that he got from an indignant citizen the evening before, and by his anticipation of further attentions of the kind.

In the recent passage of the Illinois World's Fair bill, making an appropriation of $1,000,000 for the State exhibit, it was decided that 10 per cent of this should be expended for the women's exhibit and 5 per cent for the exhibit of live stock. Therefore the New York Sun reasons that this indicates that the people of Illinois think only two or three of their women as they do of their cattle.

EXPERTS at the game of bacarat are at a loss to discover how any cheating could have been done at Francky Court having been done by Sir William Gordon Cunningham. It is the simplest game in the world, had it been properly played, there would have been no earthly chance of cheating in the manner described by the witnesses in this case. The only safe deduction from the whole business is that the players, eminent as they were, either didn't know the game, or purposely disregarded its simple rules.

The influence of example of women is making itself felt in a new way among the actors. They are having themselves made to appear as young as possible in their lithographs and posters. Stuart Robson's portrait is that of a lad of eighteen, and De Wolf Hopper looks even younger in his latest pictures—a mere boy, in fact. The women of theater have learned this stroke of business years ago, and had themselves portrayed at never less than ten years under their actual age; but until a year ago the men of the profession were pictured as they really looked.

SAYS a Southern Pacific conductor: "A conductor who wants the glory of conducting a special train—especially a President's train—is a greater asset than I take him to be. The management looks after you as sharply as if you were a pickpocket, and, instead of letting you run the train, there are generally half a dozen bosses on the cars, rushing around and ordering and counter-ordering as if the President were in immediate danger of some awful accident. It is enough to get the strongest man raised to be on one of these trains. No, thank you, I have had to haul the president's road no more than once, but when it comes to hauling the President of the United States I beg to be excused."

BUILDINGS IN ASHES.

Seabright, the New Jersey Summer Resort, Visited by a Most Disastrous Fire.

Forty Buildings Burned, Causing a Loss of About Five Hundred Thousand Dollars.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The well known summer resort of Seabright, N. J., was visited by a disastrous fire to-night which resulted in the destruction of about fifty buildings, causing a loss of about five hundred thousand dollars.

At 10:30 p. m., the hour fixed for calling the men to the ring, the club house was only half filled and there was no sign of the fire.

The fire broke out in a lively stable on River street, and as a wave of wind was blowing from the south, the flames spread rapidly. In a remarkably short time a whole block of buildings on River street was burned.

There is a small department store on River street, and it was telegraphed for from Long Branch and Asbury Park. By the time this assistance arrived a large portion of the Southern part of the town was in flames.

Women and children ran through the streets crying and wringing their hands in a frantic manner, while the men aided the firemen in attempting to control the flames.

The new congress of Chili has issued a manifesto setting forth the weakness of the insurgent forces and representing them to be without moral support or authority. SCHWENKPLUTH has Red from Kansas City. He explained to the inmates of the branch "heaven" he established there that he had been moved to his departure by the spirit. In the recent passage of the Illinois World's Fair bill, making an appropriation of $1,000,000 for the State exhibit, it was decided that 10 per cent of this should be expended for women's exhibit and 5 per cent for the exhibit of live stock. EXPERTS at the grave of baccharat are at a loss to discover how any cheating could have been done at Tranby Croft in the way that it is alleged to have been done by Sir William Gordon Cumming. It is the simplest game in the world, had it been properly played, there would have been no earthly chance of cheating in the manner described by the witnesses in this case. The only safe deduction from the whole business is that the players, eminent as they were, either didn't know the game, or purposely disregarded its simple rules.

The influence of example of women is making itself felt in a new way among the actors. They are having themselves made to appear as young as possible in their lithographs and posters. Stuart Robson's portrait is that of a lad of eighteen, and De Wolf Hopper looks even younger in his newest pictures—a mere boy, in fact. The women of the stage learned this stroke of business years ago, and had themselves portrayed at never less than ten years under their actual age, but it isn't a year ago the men of the profession were pictured as they really looked.

SAYS a Southern Pacific conductor: "A conductor who wants the glory of conducting a special train—especially a President's train—is a greater ass than I take him to be. The management looks after you as sharply as if you were a pickpocket, and instead of letting you run the train, there are generally half a dozen bosses on the cars, rushing around and ordering and counter-ordering as if the President were in immediate danger of some awful accident. It is enough to get the strongest man nerved to vent the words of these trains. No, thank you, had had to haul the president of the road more than once, but when it comes to hauling the President of the United States I beg to be excused."

Death of a Respected Citizen.

On Sunday night, Mr. E. M. Tilquist, an old and respected citizen of East Brainerd, died of hernia, after an illness of over two years. Mr. Tilquist came to this city about ten years ago, and has since been employed by the N. P. company in the blacksmith shop until stricken down by disease. He was a plain, honest, upright man, a good citizen, and therefore universally loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and five children, three boys and two girls, all grown, to mourn his loss. His remains were interred in Evergreen cemetery yesterday afternoon, the funeral services being held at the Swedish Baptist Church on Tenth street south. He was 55 years old.

Candidate For Stillwater.

In this city Kefford succeeded in passing two checks to the amount of $650 each, to which he had forged the name of C. B. Thompson. He had worked with Mr. Thompson on the electric light job for some time which made the job an easier one as he is apt with the pen. He was supposed to be in Superior and an officer went there after him, but found he had worked that place and Duluth, and that there was a warrant out for his arrest there. The young man will probably be caught before many days as detectives are on his track.

A Pleasant Event.

A very pleasant social event was the reception tendered Mr. Julius Kiebler and his bride, at the residence of the groom's parents on 9th street north last Tuesday evening. Mr. Kiebler was a resident of this city for several years until about four months ago, when he went to Winnipeg to live. While here he was a member of the 3rd Regt. Band, and the members of that organization arranged to surprise him on his return from Little Falls, where he was married the day previous to Miss Mary Kunza, a highly respected young lady of that city. Accordingly the band repaired to the residence of Mr. Kiebler's parents and gave them a serenade, rendering several choice selections. Mr. Kiebler invited them in, when they presented him with an elegant table fruit basket. Mr. H. C. Stivers making the presentation speech on behalf of the band. Mr. Kiebler responded in a very feeling manner, after which fragrant Havannas were distributed, and another musical selection the visitors took their departure. Mr. Kiebler is very highly esteemed by the band boys, who wish him every happiness in his new relations.

Merry Makers Coming.

Brainerd will have a siege of musical farce-comedies next week, presented by Rentfrow's old established and highly admirable company of comedians, whose trade-mark is the "Jolly Pathfinders." The personnel is composed of people well known in the vaudeville world, and people whose ability to amuse is far ahead of their many unsuccessful rivals. Prominent among their array of talent may be mentioned the petite ingenue soubrette, Miss Gipsy Ward, who figured so conspicuously last season in "Lost in New York," and won the hearts of the western public. Coleman and Haden, the famous Boston specialty team, are with the company, and also Lucier and Archmere, from the San Francisco vaudeville. The bill in which the singing, dance and otherwise make merry Monday night is called "Fun by Express," bubbling over with flashes of sparkling satire, and brim-full of catchy music, rippling songs and graceful dances. Another pleasing feature, the Pathfinders have their own band and orchestra, and their repertoire is strictly original. Prices will be only 10, 20 and 30 cents, which should insure crowded houses throughout the week.

Quite an Event.

The St. Cloud Journal-Press has the following to say of the Howe-Edelbrock wedding:

The marriage of Lizzie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Edelbrock, to Joseph J. son of J. J. Howe, Esq., of Brainerd, was celebrated Thursday morning at ten o'clock at the Cathedral, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Otto Zardetti officiating, attended by Father Brauer and assisted by Fathers Richter and Beck. The auditorium was filled with friends of the fair young bride, when Prof. Kaiser at the organ began the wedding march and the ushers, Messrs. Jno. A. Zapp and George Ley, met the wedding party at the Cathedral entrance. The bride entered on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of white gros-grain silk, cut princess and entraîne, with veil, her only ornaments being a diamond brooch and bracelet. In her hand she carried a handsome prayer book. She was as sweet and lovely as a bride need be and was attended by her maid-of-honor, Miss Julia Howe, sister of the groom, and following were the bridesmaids, Mr. Jos. F. Edelbrock, and the bridesmaid, Miss Lizzie Zapp, Miss Howe and Miss Zapp wearing pretty costumes of pink silk with large leg horn hats and carrying bouquets of pink roses. At the church they were met by the groom and his friend, Mr. Chas. F. Macdonald, and Bishop Zardetti having entered and donned his canonical robes with mitre and staff, the bride and groom, with their attendants, presented themselves before him. His Lordship made a short address in which he said that he had decided to honor them by performing the ceremony because of the bride's family. He spoke of the benefits extended to the church in the early days of St. Cloud by her father, and now he would repay the debt many fold to his youngest daughter. The nuptial mass was sung by the full choir, led by Prof. Kaiser, with Judge Brick at the organ, and a trio was effectively rendered by Miss Zapp, Mr. Jno. Edelbrock and Peter Martini. At the close of the service the wedding party with relatives and a few friends drove to the Edelbrock residence where the wedding breakfast was served, and at three o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Howe started on an extended trip East via Duluth. They will return and be at home about June 25th, when they will receive the congratulations of a large circle of friends. They received many handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Edelbrock gave them a full outfit of household linen. Mr. Howe a good sized check to each; the employees of Mr. Howe at Brainerd, a full silver set, including both flat pieces and standards, and besides there were quantities of silver, pictures and bric-a-brac, etc.

On motion of the county attorney the case was dismissed, and Mr. Hallett discharged, the evidence showing no probability of his being guilty.

On Wednesday night about 11 o'clock the old frame building on West Front street, at the end of the railroad bridge, was discovered to be on fire. The department was called on in short order, but as the force of water was not sufficient to do any good for some time, the fire gained such headway that the building, which was practically worthless, was entirely destroyed. The building was vacant at the time, although it has been used more or less lately by the chocolate-colored demi-monde.

It is said that all the train dispatchers at Brainerd have been transferred to West Superior, and that Supt. Greene will remove his office to Staples as soon as rooms can be fitted up for him. F. Davis, the superintendent of bridges and buildings, was in town Saturday taking measurements in and around Wise's eating house, and he says it will be remodeled and used for the superintendent's office and others. While we are pleased to receive these additions to our growing little city it will cause much regret if, as seems likely, it will necessitate the removal from our midst of Mr. G. W. Vandervalle, the obliging assistant superintendent and president of the village council.—Presto Change.

Death of a Respected Citizen.

On Sunday night, Mr. E. M. Tilquist, an old and respected citizen of East Brainerd, died of hernia, after an illness of over two years. Mr. Tilquist came to this city about ten years ago, and has since been employed by the N. P. company in the blacksmith shop until stricken down by disease. He was a plain, honest, upright man, a good citizen, and therefore universally loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and five children, three boys and two girls, all grown, to mourn his loss. His remains were interred in Evergreen cemetery yesterday afternoon, the funeral services being held at the Swedish Baptist Church on Tenth street south. He was 55 years old.

Candidate For Stillwater.

The authorities are looking for a slick young man by the name of Jasper W. Kefford who has been passing forged checks in this city and elsewhere. In this city Kefford succeeded in passing two checks to the amount of $6.50 each, to which he had forged the name of C. B. Thompson. He had worked with Mr. Thompson on the electric light line for some time which made the job an easier one as he is apt with the pen. He was supposed to be in Superior and an officer went there after him, but found he had worked that place and Duluth, and that there was a warrant out for his arrest there. The young man will probably be caught before many days as detectives are on his track.

A Pleasant Event.

A very pleasant social event was the reception tendered Mr. Julius Kiebler and his bride, at the residence of the groom's parents on 9th street north last Tuesday evening. Mr. Kiebler was a resident of this city for several years until about four months ago, when he went to Winnipeg to live. While here he was a member of the 3rd Regt. Band, and the members of that organization arranged to surprise him on his return from Little Falls, where he was married the day previous to Miss Mary Kunza, a highly respected young lady of that city. Accordingly the band repaired to the residence of Mr. Kiebler's parents and gave them a serenade, rendering several choice selections. Mr. Kiebler invited them in, when they presented him with an elegant table fruit basket, Mr. H. C. Stivers making the presentation speech on behalf of the band. Mr. Kiebler responded in a very feeling manner, after which fragrant Havanas were distributed, and after another musical selection the visitors took their departure. Mr. Kiebler is very highly esteemed by the band boys, who wish him every happiness in his new relations.

Merry Makers Coming.

Brainerd will have a siege of musical farce-comedies next week, presented by Rentfrow's old established and highly admirable company of comedians, whose trade-mark is the "Jolly Pathfinders." The personnel is composed of people well known in the vaudeville world, and people whose ability to amuse is far ahead of their many unsuccessful rivals. Prominent among their array of talent may be mentioned the petite ingenue, Miss Gipsy Ward, who figured so conspicuously last season in "Lost in New York," and won the hearts of the western public. Coleman and Haden, the famous Boston specialty team, are with the company, and also Lucier and Archmora, from the San Francisco vaudeville. The bill in which they sing, dance and otherwise make merry Monday night is called "Fun by Express," bubbling over with flashes of sparkling satire, and brim-full of catchy music, rippling songs and graceful dances. Another pleasing feature, the Pathfinders have their own band and orchestra, and their repertoire is strictly original. Prices will be only 10, 20 and 30 cents, which should insure crowded houses throughout the week.

Quite an Event.

The St. Cloud Journal-Press has the following to say of the Howe-Edelbrock wedding:

The marriage of Lizzie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Edelbrock, to Joseph J. son of J. Howe, Esq., of Brainerd, was celebrated Thursday morning at ten o'clock at the Cathedral, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Otto Zardetti officiating, attended by Father Bruner and assisted by Fathers Richter and Beck. The auditorium was filled with friends of the fair young bride, when Prof. Kaiser at the organ began the wedding march and the ushers, Messrs. Jno. A. Zapp and George Ley, met the wedding party at the Cathedral entrance. The bride entered on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of white gros-grain silk, cut princess and train, with veil, her only ornaments being a diamond brooch and earrings. In her hand she carried a handsome prayer book. She was as sweet and lovely as a bride need be and was attended by her maid-of-honor, Miss Julia Howe, sister of the groom, and following were the bridesmaids, Mr. Jos. F. Edelbrock, and the bridesmaid, Miss Lizzie Zapp, Miss Howe and Miss Zapp wearing pretty costumes of pink surah silk, with large leghorn hats, and carrying bouquets of pink roses. At the church they were met by the groom and his friend, Mr. Chas. F. Macdonald, and Bishop Zardetti having entered and donned his canonical robes with mitre and staff, the bride and groom, with their attendants, presented themselves before him. His Lordship made a short address in which he said that he had decided to honor them by performing the ceremony because of the bride's family. He spoke of the benefits extended to the church in the early days of St. Cloud by her father, and now he would repay the debt many fold to his youngest daughter. The nuptial mass was sung by the full choir, led by Prof. Kaiser, with Judge Brick at the organ, and a trio was effectively rendered by Miss Zapp, Mr. Jno. Edelbrock and Peter Martini. At the close of the service the wedding party with relatives and a few friends drove to the Edelbrock residence where the wedding breakfast was served, and at three o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Howe started on an extended trip East via Duluth. They will return and be at home about June 25th, when they will receive the congratulations of a large circle of friends. They received many handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Edelbrock gave them a full outfit of household linen. Mr. Howe a good sized check to each; the employees of Mr. Howe at Brainerd, a full silver set, including both flat pieces and standards, and besides these were quantities of silver, pictures and bric-a-brac, etc.

THE Grand Rapids Magnet is received, Editor Bernard having removed his outfit to that place from La Prairie.

MAJ. WM. MCKINLEY was on Wednesday nominated by the republicans as their candidate for governor of Ohio. Maj. McKinley made a rousing speech and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. His election is a foregone conclusion, as he is exceedingly popular and invariably runs ahead of his ticket, and then Ohio is a republican state, you know.

SOUR GRAPES.

Lawyer Merrill, of Aitkin, has hitherto been a stalwart republican. But the McKinley outrage and the other overt acts of his party have sickened him, and he can no longer be counted in the fold. He was at the Clifton yesterday.

"I will never vote a republican ticket again," he asserted. I am not promising to vote either the democratic or the farmers' alliance, or any other ticket either, for that matter, mind you. It is my opinion at the present that I will remain purely independent, and my course will not be in sympathy with any one party."

Well, we are not surprised that Mr. Merrill has dropped. The only wonder is that he did not drop entirely out of this part of the country, considering the way the republican citizens of his own county served him at the last election. He was so unpopular that he was beaten 3 to 1 in his candidacy for county attorney, against a man who had lived in the county only six weeks. He has dropped, but not on account of the McKinley bill or other overt acts, unless his defeat at the hands of his party was an "overt act." His is a clear case of "sour grapes."

Third Regt. Trouble Ended.

The difficulty in the Third Regiment, between the regimental officers and the adjutant general, has been amicably adjusted, and the order accepting the resignations of Col. Wright and Adjutant McGill has been rescinded, as has also the order assigning the different companies to duty in other regiments. An order was also issued directing the regiment to go into camp from June 27th to July 6th. The following are the orders adjusting the matter:

Order No. 9: General order No. 7, under date of June 7, so far as the same pertains to the 3d regiment, is hereby rescinded. By command of the adjutant general.

Order No. 7: was the one assigning the companies of the 3d regiment to other regiments. The second order, issued last night, was general order No. 10, which reads:

"General order No. 4, current series, is hereby amended to read as follows: 'The national guard of this state will enter camp for instruction at Lake City, Minn., as hereinafter designated: Second infantry, Col. J. B. Bollerle commanding, June 18 to 27 inclusive; 3d infantry, Col. Frederick P. Wright commanding, June 27 to July 6 inclusive; 1st infantry, Col. W. B. Bend commanding, July 7 to 16 inclusive.

"By command of the governor, Adjutant General."

This amicable adjustment of the matter and the re-organization of the Third Regiment, is highly satisfactory to the members of Co. K, of this city, of which regiment Co. K is a part, and the boys are very much elated over the outcome of affairs.

From Off Port Royal, S. C., to the Bermuda, and Still Wandering.

An interesting instance of the strange wanderings of derelicts at sea is furnished by the Atlantic pilot chart. On Nov. 26, 1886, the Port Royal boy having gone adrift, began its career of adventure off Charleston harbor. Drifting out into the gulf stream it remained in the warm waters that current during the remainder of that year, gradually moving northward in a zigzag course, probably under the influence of conflicting winds. It was last seen that year in the gulf stream on Dec. 24, 1886. Three months later it was discovered floating serenely along in good condition, off the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, some 200 miles north of the Bermuda. Then it started for a more southern latitude, and during the month of May voyaged along past the southern side of the Bermuda, making only a short distance from those coral islands. For more than a year it was lost sight of, but although it had been in and near the track of the great hurricanes, it turned up in good shape on June 9, 1888, 600 miles northwest of the Bermuda. Here it seems to have found a part of the ocean to its liking, for it remained in that neighborhood, always drifting, and several times recrossing its track, but never venturing more than a hundred miles or two in any direction, for two years. It was seen by passing vessels on several occasions during this time. Finally it started again toward the south, and according to the latest advices on Sept. 15 last it had again gone below the latitude of the Bermuda, but keeping 500 or 600 miles to the eastward of the islands. The wanderer was still in good condition when last seen. Thirteenth, what kind of a creature this lost buoy is particularly interesting for the light that it throws upon the old stories of drifting relics having been carried from America to the coasts of the old world before Columbus sailed.

Standard of Education.

According to Ruskin, an educated man ought to know these things: First, where he is—that is to say, what sort of a world he has got into, how large it is, what kind of creatures live in it and how, what it is made of, and what may be made of it. Secondly, where he is going—that is to say, what chances or reports there are of any other world besides this, what seems to be the nature of that other world. Thirdly, what kind of faculties he possesses, what are the present state and wants of mankind, what is his place in society, and what are the readiest means in his power of attaining happiness and fulfilling it. The man who knows these things, and who has his will so subdued in the learning of them that he is ready to do what he knows he ought, is educated, and the man who knows them not is uneducated, though he could talk all the tongues of Babel.

Queen Victoria's Love for Babies.

Queen Victoria's love for babies by no means diminishes with her increasing number of grandchildren. Indeed, the latest addition to the royal family always demands her special interest, and at the present moment it is the new baby of the Duke and Duchess of Sparta, her majesty's latest grandchild, for whom she exhibits the greatest solicitude. A magnificent cradle has just been brought to the infant, over whose outfit the Queen and the Empress Frederick spent many hours during the latter's sojourn here some weeks ago. By the earnest request of the Queen, the Duke and Duchess of Sparta, will take the baby over to England to see the Queen this month, and the princess Sophie, mother-like, is doubtless only too proud of the opportunity to display her treasure to her English relatives.

SCORE OF THE SHOOTERS.

The Gun Club Tournament Was a Success—Many Visitors Present.

The third annual tournament of the Brainerd Gun Club occurred on Wednesday and Thursday, and was a very successful affair both in point of attendance and financially. The club has always been fortunate in occasions of this kind from the fact that their grounds and accommodations are the best in the state and northwest, and visiting shooters are certain of being used in the best possible manner. This year the club was favored with some of the best trap-shooters in the state, among whom were H. C. Lawrence and John T. Burkhard, of St. Paul, A. P. Schuler and Dr. Lyons, of Minneapolis, H. W. Jones, of Atwater, Messrs. Benson, Robbins and Roberts, of Fargo, and many others. These gentlemen shooting under an assumed name as the score below will show. One unfortunate occurrence was the fact that more of our home shooters did not participate, but several of the club members were either on the sick list or absent from the city. The score by shoots was as follows:

On Wednesday night about 11 o'clock the old frame building on West Front street, at the end of the railroad bridge, was discovered to be on fire. The department was called out in short order, but as the force of water was not sufficient to do any good for some time, the fire gained such headway that the building, which was practically worthless, was entirely destroyed. The building was vacant at the time, although it has been used more or less lately by the chocolate-colored demi-monde.

It is said that all the train dispatchers Brainerd have been transferred to West Superior, and that Supt. Greene will remove his office to Staples as soon as rooms can be fitted up for him. F. Davis, the superintendent of bridges and buildings, was in town Saturday taking measurements in and around Wase's eating house, and he says it will be remodeled and used for the superintendent's office and others. Vandervelde, the obliging assistant superintendent and president of the village council.—Presto Change.

Death of a Respected Citizen.

On Sunday night, Mr. E. M. Tilquist, an old and respected citizen of East Brainerd, died of hernia, after an illness of over two years. Mr. Tilquist came to this city about ten years ago, and has since been employed by the N. P. company in the blacksmith shop until stricken down by disease. He was a plain, honest, upright man, a good citizen, and therefore universally loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and five children, three boys and two girls, all grown, to mourn his loss. His remains were interred in Evergreen cemetery yesterday afternoon, the funeral services being held at the Swedish Baptist church on Tenth street south. He was 55 years old.

Candidate For Stillwater.

The authorities are looking for a sick young man by the name of Jasper W. Kefford who has been passing forged checks in this city and elsewhere. In this city Kefford succeeded in passing two checks to the amount of $6.50 each, to which he had forged the name of C. B. Thompson. He had worked with Mr. Thompson on the electric light line for some time which made the job an easier one as he is apt with the pen. He was supposed to be in Superior and an officer went there after him, but found he had worked that place and Duluth, and that there was a warrant out for his arrest there. The young man will probably be caught before many days as detectives are on his track.

A Pleasant Event.

A very pleasant social event was the reception tendered Mr. Julius Kiebler and his bride, at the residence of the groom's parents on 9th street north last Tuesday evening. Mr. Kiebler was a resident of this city for several years until about four months ago, when he went to Winnipeg to live. While here he was a member of the 3rd Regt. Band, and the members of that organization arranged to surprise him on his return from Little Falls, where he was married the day previous to Miss Mary Kunza, a highly respected young lady of that city. Accordingly the band repaired to the residence of Mr. Kiebler's parents and gave them a serenade, rendering several choice selections. Mr. Kiebler invited them in, when they presented him with an elegant table fruit basket. Mr. H. C. Stivers making the presentation speech on behalf of the band. Mr. Kiebler responded in a very feeling manner, after which fragrant Havanas were distributed, and after another musical selection the visitors took their departure. Mr. Kiebler is very highly esteemed by the band boys, who wish him every happiness in his new relations.

Merry Makers Coming.

Brainerd will have a siege of musical farce-comedies next week, presented by Rentfrow's old established and highly admirable company of comedians, whose trade-mark is the "Jolly Pathfinders." The personnel is composed of people well known in the vaudeville world, and people whose ability to amuse is far ahead of their many unsuccessful rivals. Prominent among their array of talent may be mentioned the petite ingenue, Miss Gipsy Ward, who figured so conspicuously last season in "Lost in New York," and won the hearts of the western public. Coleman and Haden, the famous Boston specialty team, are with the company, and also Lucier and Archmore, from the San Francisco vaudeville. The bill in which this singing, dancing and otherwise make merry Monday night is called "Fun by Express," bubbling over with flashes of sparkling satire, and brim-full of catchy music, rippling songs and graceful dances. Another pleasing feature is the fact that the company have their own band and orchestra, and their repertoire is strictly original. Prices will be only 10, 20 and 30 cents, which should insure crowded houses throughout the week.

Quite an Event.

The St. Cloud Journal-Press has the following to say of the Howe-Edelbrock wedding:

The marriage of Lizzie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Edelbrock, to Joseph J. son of J. J. Howe, Esq., of Brainerd, was celebrated Thursday morning at ten o'clock at the Cathedral, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Otto Zardetti officiating, attended by Father Brainer and assisted by Fathers Richter and Beck. The auditorium was filled with friends of the fair young bride, when Prof. Kaiser at the organ began the wedding march and the nuptial mass. The bride and groom, George Ley, met the wedding party at the Cathedral entrance. The bride entered on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of white gros-grain silk, cut princess and train, with veil, her only ornaments being a diamond brooch and bride's roses. In her hand she carried a handsome prayer book. She was as sweet and lovely as a bride need be and was attended by her maid-of-honor, Miss Julia Howe, sister of the groom, and following were the bridesmaids, Mrs. Jos. F. Edelbrock, and the bridesmaid, Mrs. J. J. Howe, Miss Howe and Miss Zapp wearing pretty costumes of pink sateen silk, with large leghorn hats, and carrying bouquets of pink roses. At the chancel they were met by the groom and his friend, Mr. Chas. F. Macdonald, and Bishop Zardetti, having entered and donned his canonical robes with mitre and staff, the bride and groom, with their attendants, presented themselves before him. His Lordship made a short address in which he said that he had decided to honor them by performing the ceremony because of the bride's family. He spoke of the benefits extended to the church in the early days of St. Cloud by her father, and now he would repay the debt many fold to his youngest daughter. The nuptial mass was sung by the full choir, led by Prof. Kaiser, with Judge Beck at the organ, and a trio was effectively rendered by Miss Zapp, Mr. Jno. Edelbrock and Peter Martini. At the close of the service the wedding party with relatives and a few friends drove to the Edelbrock residence where the wedding breakfast was served, and at three o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Howe started on an extended trip East via Duluth. They will return and be at home about June 25th, when they will receive the congratulations of a large circle of friends. They received many handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Edelbrock gave them a full outfit of household linens; Mr. Howe a good sized check to each; the employees of Mr. Howe at Brainerd, a full silver set, including both flat pieces and standards, and besides there were quantities of silver, pictures and bric-a-brac, etc.
